MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: "American Defectors to the USSR"

- 1. The attached material was part of a soft file entitled "American Defectors to the USSR", which was set up by SR/6 (Support) around 1960 and maintained by various SR components until ca. 1963. The compilations were derived from a variety of sources, and contain both classified and overt data.
- 2. In the fall of 1966, the files were turned over to CI Staff. In most instances, basic information was then abstracted for the US Defector Machine Program. In all instances in which the material was unique, or represented a valuable collation effort, it has been incorporated into the appropriate 201 file, along with a copy of this memorandum,
- 3. It is suggested that any dissemination of this data should be coordinated with SB Division and with CI Staff (CI/MRO), in view of the frequently inadequate sourcing and of the fact that disseminations have already been made through the US Defector Machine Program.

October 1945. Medical discharge, for which he granted and still receiving 30% disability pension. According to his own statements, he may have been discharged on mental grounds and may have had later psychiatric treatment from the 7A. (Desp. 111)

1745-1953. "For sic eight years after the war" he was at a trade school in Los Angeles. (Unidentified newspaper article datelined Moscow 5 Sept 59, cited in DBA-68069 of 21.1.64, in SRS files)

19 Dec 1954. Parried Helen SCHOLLER, born 1910 in Aussia. (68069)

19 Dec 57. Divorce. She residing Los Ingeles with four-year-old daughter; running candy business. (68069)

1958-1959. At this time(and probably in the whole post-war period so far) personality clackes with superiors made it impossible for him to hold jobs. In addition to carpenter and stret metal worker (apparently his specialties) he worked as acrobat, draftsman, procesy clerk, etc. (60069)

Early August 1959. He departed New York on an organized tour to western Europe and the USER. (Desp 111). He said that he paid $965 (69059). He may have had help from the brother with when he lived, because except for his irregular working income, he had only his pension: $14 to him, $10 to wife for support of child. (Desp 111)

10 Amount 1959. Entered Soviet Union at Vyborg, on regular sevenday tourist visa increa in Mashington 20 July 1959. On to leningrad and rescow the next day. (Lesp 111)

12 Laguest 1959. Day his tour group to entrain for Leningrad, there to board the EALTIMA for London. He suddenly decided to stay in Mascon, failed show up at the station, and canceled ship reservations through Inturist guide. He had no communist sympathies or idealogical leanings toward the USCA, and what no grievances against the USCA Thought he could get a good job in the SU though admitted had no friends there and knew nothing of country, people, or language. (68069)

18 August 1959 and the following ten days. Spoke about his decision to other Americans in the hotel restaurant and elsewhere but did not write home about it. (Lesp 111).

27 August 1959. He mentioned his intention in casual conversation with a resident American correspondent, who suggested he inform the Arunb. (Desp 111)

28 August 1959. He visited the Embassy and was interviewed for two hours by Englar, with the correspondent also present. Gave his reason for wanting to start. Laid had taken initiative kyzakokskak asking hotel manager and anterist guide how he could start no one had induced or influenced. Upon gride's advice to had drafted letter to prove elevistically exting evict citizanship but had not yet cent it. Still had not must said plant tichels but may virtually out of noney, which he had told Inturiat gide; not worried because expected imposable Soviet response to his job report. The pitfalls and exploitation possibilities were exclained to him but he dismissed as cloak-and-dagger, said had heard times changing in USSR. He was given rame and telephone mader of enerican Catholic priest in Execut, the subsequently talked with him. He was rational, logical, serious, non-agressive, but insisted on renouncing citizenship and defecting. (Besp. 111)

29 Turnst 1959. He went shead and sent the letter to the Funreme Soviet. He did not keep a copy but told AmEnh it included five specific points as specified by Inturist guide: 1) PPCB, 2) names and addresses of relatives, 3) his property and bank accounts (none); h) his skills, education, and work record; and 5) his moral, ideologican, and (illegible) reasons for wanting Soviet citizenship. Wouldn't say what he had written under 5) or whether he had said anything against the US. (Desp. 111)

2 September 1959. He came to the Embassy, turned in his passport, told of sending the letter to the Supreme Soviet, and indicated he had not changed his mird. Snyder again explained the irrevocability of remunciation and when Petrulli said he understood seriousness, asked him to come back in the afternoon when Snyder would be prepared to administer the oath of remunciation. This was done. (Desp. 111)

5 September 1959. He told several recole that he felt "morally and economically at home in the Soviet Union" ... many jobs in recent years in US and not happy there. itematically Not bitter against US, but just liked SE better: people not in a hurry and not nervous wrecks; he thought they were trying to do things right in the SU. (69069)

8 September 1959. He came to the Embassy to request a written statement of his citizenship status for the Poviet a thorities. When told wabassy would inform him as soon as State informed them, he switched to questions re visa requirements for entering US. We felt Sers giving him runaround because no acknowledgement of his letter or repeated job requests. Elentioned he without money or friends, no smeak hassian, etc. which had all been pointed out to him a few days before. Exampliately Still no Soviet press exploitation known to rebassy and no approach to the imbassy about him. He still at Hotel thraina, at Soviet expense but left to his own devices. Inb orined this might indicate Sovs undecided what do with him or do not think him good exploitation material. No evidence of provocation or entrapment, but Sovs have deliberately facilitates his actions: remitted his overstay visa, encouraged his through Inturist guide to seek citizenship from Supreme Soviet, and allowed him remain at Ukraina on credit. Petrulli remained ment and rational through all three meetings at Emb. Invediately after this interview at the he told A wrican correspondent he just wanted to go home. (Desp. 111) This was probably must care out in washington Post on 9 cept: said he had done stupid thing to renounce US citizenship in hopes of Seviet ... wanted go home ... had renaunced UE citizenship because of "too many contradictions" in the American way of life ... would decline with thanks even in the now offered him Soviet Miticenship ... change of mind not due to disillusionment with EV but because no friends or relatives to look cut for him as at home. (68069)

U. September 1959. On this date an unidentified Toylet official told him (in response to his letter requestin Loviet citizenship) that he should have applied at the SovEmb Washim ton; manager of Ukraina dotel told him he would have to vacate the premises by 16 Deptember; and both told him to retrieve his passport from the Amenh or get some kind of travel document from them, because he had to leave. His brother had sent him 3300. (68069)

15 September 1959. He appeared at Amend and told above ultimatum. (68069)

19 September 1959. According to DBA-68069 he applied for an emergancy passport on this date, but it seems likely that he must have applied for it on the 15th or some date in retween, because a washing ton Post article—of 19 September (cited in 68069) reported that his US citizenship had already been returned to him, since State had declared him legally incompetent; same appeared in NY Times of 19 Sept. He declared himself "luckiest guy in the world". His serious mental condition further confirmed by ex-wife, who said he a very sick man alternately woncerful and terrible.

Subject, a tourist in Russia, appeared at the American Labassy in Moscow on 23 August 1959, indicating that he wished to remain in the Soviet Union. Pespite being cautioned by an Embassy official, Subject insisted that he wished to renounce his American citizenship. He said he liked what the USSK stands for and thought he would be able to make a better living in that country. He executed an eath of remunciation of his American citizenship on 3 September 1959, and stated that he had applied for Soviet citizenship.

Subject was born in Procklyn, New York, on 13 February 1921, of Italian-born parents. He was a sheet-motal worker in Valley Stream, Hew York, who had been divorced, in December 1957, from his Russian-born wife, whom he had married in December 195h and by whom he has a daughter. Subject reportedly served in the United States Air Force, during World War II; and was discharged in October 1965, after undergoing treatment in a montal hospital. He subsequently had psychiatric care, while living in California.

Subject obtained a passport on 2 June 1957, for a two-week trip to impland and Sussis; entered the USS. At Viborg, from Finland, on 10 August 1959, on a regular seven-day tourist visa; and entered Lenia rad as a tourist, on 11 August 1959.

After renouncing his American citizenship on 3 tentember 1959, Subject responsed at the American emissay on 8 September 1959, stating that he felt the Soviets were giving him the run around and that he had changed his mind and wished to retain his United States citizenship and return home. The Soviets had reportedly advised Subject that to obtain Soviet citizenship, he would have to return to Washington, D. C., and apply at the Soviet Embassy there. According to a foreign service dispatch from Moscow, there was no evidence of planned Soviet provocation or entrapment; but the Soviets had facilitated his actions by knowingly permitting him to overstay his viza, encouraging through his Intourist guide to send his citizenship application to the Empress Soviet, and allowing him to remain on credit at a deluxe hotel.

The State Department ruled that Subject's attempted renunciation of his United States citizenship was not a legally competent act, and he was given a one-way passport for the United States. He returned to his home in New York, on 22 September 1959.

(the above information is largely taken from a foreign service dispatch, of 9/11/59. Information regarding Subject's obtaining a passport to return to the United States, and information regarding his return home, 12 from New York Times newspaper articles.
